

I would just like to say that the XM Radios Traffic and Weather is a great and timely service. Over the Air radio has nothing as convenient and quickly accessible as this. Please, remember that with no commercials to wait thru this information is immediately at our disposal. Even with the great number of local stations in Los Angeles, we still get better coverage for the surrounding area than with the local stations. Please do not take this great feature away. Thanks for your time.